Summary

Energetic problem solver and team player looking for new opportunities in fullstack and backend development. I am jumping into new career in this fields and currently studying rigorously independently and at University of Turku to hone my skills even further in the field. IT student by night and part-time guitar teacher by day so you could call me your new backend rockstar!

To me, music and coding have so much in common, they are both languages that can both be tools to express something new and exciting.

Experience in: Javascript, Python, React.js, Docker, Html.

Tools I use: Visual Studio Code, PyCharm, PgAdmin.
